

Short summary :

Teresa Le is a businesswoman. She explained how she arrived to set up his own business after she had lost her job, and she wanted to do something for herself. She explained how it was very to difficult to find ideas to create a projet in order to open a restaurant, because she like to cook and she wanted to teach people how to cook. To run his business she started cooking home. She explained how she needed money to invest to set up his business and how she would like to have a good chief to work for with her. She wants to cook something that everybody will appreciate, and wants to develop new products. Finally she has a chief like a model who inspired her.

Prepared by Judelin Seide